

The Church's Music Fund is a collaborative project between STEF and the National Church and operates according to Art. charter no. 235/1974. Its purpose is to promote ecclesiastical music and lyrics. STEF nominates one of the three board members plus one of the alternates. The Writer's Union also nominates a board member. Grants are allocated once a year. There is no special application form, but a detailed description of the project is requested along with estimated cost. Samples or fragments of the works may be accompanied by applications, which should be submitted before the end of November. Allocations are made in December or January.
